

YOUR INVITATION
for
CHESS COLLECTORS INTERNATIONAL'S
19th BIENNIAL CONGRESS
Saint Louis, Missouri, USA
May 27 - 31, 2020

From the ENLIGHTENMENT to the WILD WEST

You are hereby cordially invited to attend the 19th Biennial Congress of Chess Collectors International, to be held in Saint Louis, Missouri, USA, from May 27th through the 31st, 2020.

We have an exciting program planned for you. Saint Louis is the permanent home of the World Chess Hall of Fame (WCHOF), and the fabled Saint Louis Chess Club. For those of us used to small, dingy chess clubs, stepping into the St. Louis club feels like arriving in the Promised Land. Along with the chess-themed Kingside Diner (which actually has two locations in the St. Louis area), this part of the upscale Central West End neighborhood is referred to as the "chess campus." The most important links for these fine institutions are as follows:

World Chess Hall of Fame: <https://worldchesshof.org>

Saint Louis Chess Club: <https://saintlouischessclub.org>

The Kingside Diner: <http://www.kingsidediner.com/cwe/>

The theme of our 2020 meeting will be, "From the Enlightenment to the Wild West." Usually, those two historical periods are never mentioned in the same breath, but they do link up in one and only one place on Earth: St. Louis. That is because the United States once had, to its credit, a very important Enlightenment figure you may have heard of, Mr. Thomas Jefferson. In 1803, President Jefferson purchased a rather large plot of land from Napoleon Bonaparte of France, and suddenly needed to explore it.

In his unquenchable thirst for knowledge ("Are there woolly mammoths out there? Are there giants? Is there an easy water route to get from here to the Pacific Ocean?") Jefferson commissioned the legendary Lewis & Clark Expedition of 1804 - 06. This expedition, also known by its more romantic name, the Corps of Discovery, just happened to embark from ... St. Louis. That is why St. Louis has the famous arch, and is known today as the "Gateway to the West." From this city, you have only to turn your face to the west to look out over the Great Plains, once the home of bison and rattlesnakes, cowboys and Indians, and beyond that, to the Rocky Mountains. Just a few highlights:

- The featured exhibition in the museum during our visit will be "Dare to Know: Chess in the Age of Reason," which will explore the complex and fascinating role played by the Game of Kings at a time when many nations and peoples were just beginning to throw off their kings. Expect to see a startling selection of original sets, boards, books and other chess artifacts from the 18th and very early 19th centuries, featuring the true first edition of Denis Diderot's massive Encyclopédie (published 1751 - 1780), which everyone has heard of, but few have ever seen, along with a genuine, period Encyclopédie chess set to go with it. The Encyclopédie is universally considered by scholars and historians to be the most important document or artifact of the entire Age of Enlightenment, one which literally rocked the foundations of Western Civilization as we know it.

- A public reading of the poem, Caïssa, written by William Jones of England in 1763, when he was just a 17-year old boy.
- Lectures on chess-related topics, a chess auction, a chess market, etc.

YOUR ORGANIZERS: Tom Gallegos: livinginthepast@comcast.net
Luann Woneis: l.woneis@comcast.net

Please feel free to contact either of us at any time with any questions, comments or concerns you may have about the conference.

HOTEL INFORMATION: Our conference hotel will be the Chase Park Plaza (owned and operated by Royal Sonesta), located a short walk from the Chess Campus at 212 N. Kingshighway Blvd, St. Louis, MO 63108. Our special Chess Rate is $159 per night. There is no breakfast included with the rate (a breakfast buffet is available in the Preston, currently $22 per person, or you may order off the menu). However, you may sleep 1, 2, 3 or 4 people in the room and the rate is still just $159 per night. This rate is good up to 3 days before and/or 3 days after the conference. For this meeting, we have a dedicated travel agency, ChiChi Travel, that works directly with the World Chess Hall of Fame, and this is how we are getting the special rate. Please make your hotel reservations through their travel manager, Kelly Toal, via e-mail: ktoal@chichillc.com or by phone at 314-678-0500. You will need to provide your arrival & departure dates, name, and credit card number with expiration date to book the room. Please mention Chess Collectors International to receive the special rate. Our block of rooms is fairly small, so please book your hotel room well in advance of March 31, 2020!

AUCTION INFORMATION: We will hold a chess auction on Saturday May 30th at 10:00 am. The auctioneer will be Link Auction Galleries, which is housed in a lovely 1902 church building at 5000 Washington Place, St. Louis, MO 63108. This is a pleasant six-block walk from the Chase Park Plaza (a bus or shuttles will also be available). Our group will be bidding live and in person, but there will also be internet competition via Invaluable.com. Prior to the auction there will be viewing hours, and Link has also generously offered us the use of their facility for our morning lectures for two days prior to the auction, saving us a great deal of money on hotel conference rooms. (And it means you will have at least two days to preview the auction items prior to the auction on Saturday.)

Susan Kime, the head of Link Auction Galleries, is a well-known and respected fine art and antiques appraiser/auctioneer with over twenty years experience in the St. Louis area. She has been a featured appraiser for PBS Antiques Roadshow since 2011, and she will be coordinating our auction personally.

CONSIGNMENT INFORMATION: If you have chess sets, boards, books, clocks, ephemera or other chess-related items you wish to sell at auction, you will need to make your consignment and shipping arrangements directly with Link Auction Galleries. Please contact them via e-mail at susan@linkauctiongalleries.com, or by phone, 314-454-6525. The deadline for consignments is March 31, 2020.

CHESS MARKET INFORMATION:

The chess market will take place on Saturday, May 30, 2020, about 3:00 in the afternoon (after the auction), at the Kingside Diner. Please let us know if you need a table for the items you are offering. There will be no fee for this. The chess market will take place roughly at the same time as the simul, which will also be at the Kingside Diner.
